MOVIE WAR GIVES
PHOENIX AN EARLY
GLANCE AT FARRARBecause Lasky Must Beat Other Productions to the Screen, Manager Nace of Arizona Gets
"Carmen" Sunday.

Geraldine Farrar, in the photo-opera "Carmen" is to be seen at the Arizona theater Sunday. Never in the history of motion pictures, outside of the vast spectacular pictures in which thousands of people were employed, has any picture or any actress attracted such interest as has the Farrar-Carmen picture. Geraldine Farrar, recognized as America's most popular and beautiful operatic soprano, enjoys an international reputation for her fiery acting, as well as for her remarkable voice and operatic and motion picture circles were thrilled with the news last summer that she had made an engagement to appear in the "movies." Theater managers all over the country early realized what a tremendous power the Farrar pictures would have, and the resulting demand for the picture has surprised even the promoters. Miss Farrar was engaged by the Jesse L. Lasky company, and the pictures are therefore appearing on the Paramount program, so the fortunate local theater this time is the Arizona. Manager Nace, as late as November 5th was informed that he would have to wait at least ninety days for the picture, but luckily for Phoenix film fans, an interesting development in the merry war of the big picture makers made it desirable to put Phoenix in the class with San Francisco, Boston and New York and so, although the picture is brand new, it is to be seen here at once, instead of next February.

This picture opened just a few days ago in New York City at the Grand theater, and broke all records by showing to twenty-two thousand two hundred and eleven people on the first day. Critics are enthusiastic over "Carmen" and say that it is one of the best staged and most strikingly dramatic pictures yet presented.

WILD MULE AND BURROS

with mule, the same mule that refused to be ridden the day before, a puncher named Mitchell accomplished what had not been done before.

He mounted the little beast, and what's more stuck to it. One Mitt Simms, just prior to the mule's being released, offered to bet a fabulous sum that Mitchell couldn't stay on for five consecutive bucks. He did that all right, and what's more stayed on until the mule stopped bucking and absolutely refused to buck any more. He conquered the beast, but the minute he was dismounted, the aforementioned mule manifested its nasty disposition by taking a long lingering kick at Mitchell's head. The kick missed by inches.

FOOTBALL MEETING.

The Cubs are going to have a football team at last, and a meeting is to be held Friday night at 7:20 for the purpose of electing a captain and a manager and making plans for the coming games.

A few light practices will be held next week, and Friday, the day after Thanksgiving, a big hard one will be held, at which every person wishing to play on the team must be present.

There are plenty of teams with which games can be played, and the late start will be only a small handicap.

The teams which the Cubs can get games with are the evenly matched teams, Monroe and Adams, the Y.
M. C. A. night class team, the Osborn school team and a team of an athletic club in the Gorman district.

Y. M. C. A. BOWLING

Munson and Seaman beat Holmes and Haldiman by a substantial margin in the Y. M. C. A. two-men bowling tournament. Munson and Seaman each scored a high mark of 157, and Holmes bowled a high mark of 162.

THE DANGER OF WAR TALK

The commercial traveler seated himself in the corner seat and carefully adjusted his portmanteau on the floor.

Then he handed a newspaper to a passenger opposite, and remarked:
"Another of those dispatch riders captured, you see, they don't know the A. B. C. of their business."

"I suppose you could teach them?" remarked the man opposite, with an attempt at sarcasm.

"Well, I think so. You don't know Jones, I suppose. Jones of Birmingham? Smart man, he is. Well, he went out to the Transvaal with the Yeomanry. He was given some dispatches to carry, but he didn't get caught. No, sir. He had his head shaved, and then had the message tattooed on his scalp. Then he applied his hair-restorer, and he felt safe. He was stopped three times and searched, but, of course, nothing was found. Finally he reached his destination, and his head shaved again, and went to show his head to the general. Oh, he was smart, I tell you! And now, gentlemen, if any of you would like to try a lot-tle of our 'Grow-up' Hair-Restorer, price three shillings and sixpence, I will give a written guarantee that -thank you, sir. Three-and-sixpence from ten shillings leaves six-and-six.
Good day; I get out here."—The Times.

NORTH IS LOYAL
TO STATE FAIR

The north has certainly been loyal to the state fair, in spite of all the rumors of a boycott that had been planned in the northern counties. It was reported that there would be a light attendance from them, but on the contrary, it has so far been heavier than it was last year. The Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix railroad, at Prescott, for the first two days of the fair sold more tickets to Phoenix than were sold during the whole week of the fair a year ago.
Likewise, there has been a good representation from the southern counties. Maricopa seems to be the only one of the large counties whose citizens have not yet turned out in great numbers.

GAS FURNACE

By the turn of a key the coldest room may in a few minutes be made warm and comfortable to the farthest corners.

Turning the key takes the place of old-time drudgery, worry and inconvenience. Absolute freedom from dirt and grime means a saving in house furnishings, clothing and heat.

More than a hundred gas furnaces are now installed in Phoenix, giving coziness and warmth to their enthusiastic owners.

Have you seen the Gas Furnace?
Have you tried the simple means of lighting one, and felt the quick rise of fresh, warm air? We invite you to see them in actual operation at our office, and will cheerfully install any furnace you may desire in your own home on free trial. After 30 days' use, if you are not thoroughly satisfied, we will gladly remove it without charge for the furnace or installation.

Your early inspection of these furnaces is urged.
